THOMAS PRINTZ' PRIVATE BULLETIN

No. 32 November 4, 1956

****

Dear Seekers after Truth:

It is My pleasure to present to you the balance of the address by My Beloved Son, El Morya, given on the night of the Transmission of the Flame, October 20, 1956. I am grateful that you are sincerely seeking Truth rather than confirmation of your own concepts. You have no idea how much that sincere, withal sometimes uncomfortable, seeking will bring to you in clarification of your four lower bodies and the raising of their vibratory action to the natural estate of God Harmony, God Comfort, and God Supply.

Love and Blessings,

MAHA CHOHAN

****

ADDRESS BY BELOVED EL MORYA - Concluded

Beloved Friends:

Tonight, the Crystal and Sapphire Blue Altar is surrounded with delicate crystal vases in which beautiful and lush blue violets, of which I am so fond, pour forth their radiance and beauty. Since October 15th, the flowers in these vases have been changed nightly by various Members of the Brotherhood - Angelic and Ascended (and some few unascended chelas) in homage to the Will of God.

As in all present Transmission Flame Classes, the comparatively small council chambers of the Retreats are not sufficient to accomodate the great numbers who attend in their finer bodies (either as they sleep or during the period of so-called death). I would like to point out to you the diamond chandeliers - both in the Council Chamber, the entrance hall, and My drawing-room. These are made of pure white diamonds, in the center of which is a delicate flicker of electric blue. Thus they illumine without the necessity of what you call 'electricity'.

The Beloved Hercules has created the amphi-theatre above Asia, and His Royal Blue Cloak covers the entire periphery of this amphitheatre. The great Archangel Michael stands in the exact center of this amphitheatre where the four descending rows of seats meet. Thus His Faith and Herculean Endurance will assist all those who attend this Conclave and want to do God's Will, but have neither the strength - spiritual, moral, mental, emotional or physical, nor the Faith to see them through whatever those experiences, which they have voluntarily chosen, might be.

The Crystal and Blue Flame from the Altar in the Flame Room will begin its expansion at the moment that the presiding Master directs all gathered in the Council Chamber to direct into that Flame the full-gathered momentum of Their breath. As both Sanat Kumara (Regent) and Lord Gautama (present Lord of the World) have offered to be Our Guests, We have provided for Them places of Honor at either side of the Flame. They, who have vowed to set the Earth and its evolutions free, are naturally interested in having the precepts of God's Divine Will charged into the souls and outer minds of the peoples of the Earth and all who will embody here in the future.

Again, there is a section provided for the Sleepers so that they may be stirred and awakened to do God's Will. They are carried in on lovely litters and FEEL the pressure of that desire TO DO. There is a special section provided for those released from the Compound because in their emotional, mental and etheric bodies is such a reluctance to accept as logical anything but their own will. There is also a section provided for the disembodied (who come from the various spheres into which their consciousness has taken them) and they, too, shall have a concentrated pressure of God's Will. The unascended chelas are invited into the Council Chamber itself with the Angelic Host, Cosmic Beings and Ascended Masters. Therefore, do not be surprised if you are filled with energy and enthusiasm to 'get things done', for spiritual strength is far more contagious than human distress.

Beloved Mother Mary, Kwan Yin, Nada and Meta are bringing all children to be born in this coming year.

Aside from these special sections presided over, of course, by glorious Angels wearing Blue Robes, there are the seven usual sections which are occupied by any and all who really (in motive) desire to do God's Will in their chosen professions.

Tonight, all wear various shades of blue and crystalline. For Myself, I have chosen garments of crystalline substance, made in the usual Hindu style, and I wear a bunch of lovely blue violets at My waist of the same species which adorn the Altar. Most of the Spiritual Hierarchy is kindly and courteously wearing blue, with the exception, of course, of the new Lord of the World who wears His usual saffron robes (with no head adornment or jewelry), and Sanat Kumara who wears the Royal Purple, with the overcape, the heavy chain of a substance like unto gold around His neck, and the six-pointed star blazing upon His bosom.

Now, as the breathing will begin, I shall take My place among the Assembly, facing the Altar, so that Sanat Kumara and Lord Gautama may have the strength and assistance of My breath also. Remember, the door of My humble quarters at Darjeeling is never locked, and My drawing-room is always open. You will find some interesting volumes upon the shelves of the bookcases, some lovely musical pieces within the rosewood box that stands near the piano, which you are invited to use, and for those of you who are not developed in talents of this sort, there is a musical record machine, at the base of which you will find selections to your liking. If you wish refreshments, just pull the tasselled cord that hangs by the drapery and a respectful servant will assist you. If you want counsel (which is less likely) for most men like to be a 'law unto themselves', either Myself or one of the Brothers is available.

Yours to do God's Will in joy, and to become the manifest expression of God's Will (as Jesus did) in fact!

EL MORYA